

SOCIETY AT REST AFTER DUTY DONE IN EARLY JUNE

Exodus Soon to Begin—House Party Echoes—Mrs. Greene and Mrs.
Gordon Hostesses.

MRS. AND MISS FAULKNER IN EUROPE UNTIL FALL

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Enjoying London Season—Miss Elizabeth Smith Bride of Yesterday—Weddings of Last Week—Ben Greet Players' Return Hailed With Joy.

Society has done its duty in rendering school celebrations and concerts delightful affairs for the graduates and their friends; it has been seen thriving churches and drawing-rooms at the pretty June weddings. Now, having justly fulfilled all demands upon its conscience, it feels entitled to take the approaching midsummer season quietly.

The pleasant weather has discouraged the usual early going away, and the city remains unusually full for the season, though plans are now being made for the first of July, the annual date when the usual exodus to the mountains and the seashore begins.

From different parts of the State come pleasant echoes of house parties in the delightful country homes now thrown open. Mrs. Edward McCormick Greene has arranged for a series of such pleasant gatherings, and Mrs. Basil Gordon's beautiful home, "Wakefield Manor," on the Rappahannock, is, according to its wont, to be a delightful centre of summer hospitality.

Mrs. Charles Faulkner, wife of former United States Senator Faulkner, and Miss Sallie Faulkner, as their friends are regretfully realizing, will not occupy their cottage at Buckroe this season, as they are now abroad, and will not return until the autumn. Last season and the season previous they were leading factors in the pleasantness of gay life at Buckroe, Mrs.
Faulkner, who before her marriage was Miss Whiting, of Hampton, being in familiar environment.

From across the Atlantic news is wafted of the brilliant London season, in which Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gordon are taking an active part. They will return in August, and stay while in the Virginia mountains before going home to Savannah, Ga.

SMITH-MCCORMICK WEDDINGS.

A wedding in which Richmond people were specially interested was celebrated yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when Miss Elizabeth A. Smith, daughter of Mrs. Edward B. Smith, of "Morven," Albemarle county, was married to Mr. Charles D. McCormick, of Cleveland, Ohio. Only relatives and a few friends witnessed the ceremony, the bride and groom leaving afterward for a tour through Thousand Islands and Upper Canada. They will have their home in Cleveland, Ohio.

The bride's father, the late Prof. Edward B. Smith, formerly held the Chair of Mathematics in Richmond College. Her uncle, Prof. Francis H.
Smith, of the University of Virginia, is one of the best known of Virginia educators.

Social events of interest last week were the weddings taking place Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, beginning with that of Miss Nanette Ambler Winston, daughter of the late Alfred Winston and Mrs. Winston, to Mr. Thomas Nathan Moore. The ceremony was performed in the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Henry S. Winston, Tuesday forenoon, at 11 o'clock. Afterward the bride's cake was cut, and then Mr. and Mrs. Moore left for Northumberland county, where their future home is to be located.

In the Baptist Church at Houston, Va., the society event of Wednesday evening was the marriage of Miss Louise Jasper Barksdale, daughter of Judge William Randolph Barksdale, to Mr. Tucker Carrington Watkins, Jr., of Halifax county. The bride was very handsome in her filmy white, with her veil, her orange blossoms and her lilies of the valley. Miss Hallie Dickinson, of this city, was her maid of honor.

The marriage of Miss Alma Percy Clash to Mr. Frederick Spitzer, of Charlottesville, was celebrated Wednesday evening last in Grace-Street Baptist Church. The bride and groom are spending their honeymoon North; but after the first of August will be at home in Charlottesville.

Richmond people are greatly pleased to hear that the Ben Greet players of Shakespeare expect to return to Richmond for November next, and that the company are scheduled to play in Williamsburg, on the college green and at William and Mary College, prior to a season on the Jamestown Exposition Grounds at Sewell's Point. The Shakespearean plays gain new interest by their presentation through the Ben Greet Company.

Tunstall—Page.

The wedding of Miss Jane Byrd Page, daughter of Mr. Holt Nelson Page and Mrs. Harriett Parke Page, to Mr. Charles McIntosh Tunstall, son of Dr. Alexander Tunstall and Mrs. Anne McIntosh Tunstall, was celebrated at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, the Rev. Beverly D. Tucker, of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, officiating.

The church was decorated with palms, candles and garlands. House decorations were in smilax and La France roses. The maid of honor was Miss Harriett Page, sister of the bride. The groom's brother, Mr. Richard Tunstall, was best man.
The list of ushers included Mr. Robert B. Tunstall, Mr. Robert Walnwright, Mr.
H. T. Walnwright, Mr. Charles P. McIntosh and Junius Wilcox, of Norfolk, and Mr. Robert Daniel, of Richmond.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Holt W. Page, wore a gown of white hand-embroidered chiffon, trimmed with real lace. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms and pearls, and she wore an ancestral pearl necklace. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids.

The maid of honor was gowned in yellow-embroidered chiffon and carried black-eyed Susans.

A wedding reception was held in the home of the bride's mother, No. 147 Yarmouth Street. Mr. and Mrs. Tunstall afterward left for New York, from which point they will sail for a European tour of several months. Among the out-town wedding guests were Dr. and Mrs.

George H. Rose, of Gloucester county; Mrs. H. I. Lewis, of West Point; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Stockton, of Plainfield, N. J.; Mr. T. Earle, of Plainfield; Miss Marie T. Layotte, of South Orange, N. J.; Miss Esther C. Byrnes, of Annapolis; Miss Nannie McC. Hunter, of Mass.
Sophie and Sallie Goode, commander and Mrs. W. H. Parks, of Dr. Fred Duval and others of Washington, D. C.

Charming Trip.

Mrs. Anna F. Rahm and Miss Betty Ellyson will chaperone a party to Niasara, Toronto, Canada, and Philadelphia, leaving Richmond by the York River line at 4:30 P. M. on July 25th, for the benefit of the Retreat for the Sick and the building fund of Second Baptist Church.

As Mrs. Rahm and Miss Ellyson's annual trips are proverbial for their enjoyment and comfort, the mention of their names only is necessary to give all assurance to those desiring the opportunity for a charming midsummer outing.
The trip will extend over eight days.
There will be trolley-boat rides in Niagara and Toronto and a stop in Philadelphia returning, that will permit a visit to Atlantic City.

Richmond Wedding.

The Scottville Enterprise of June 21st says: Miss Ellen Hall and Mr. George T.
Hogg were married quietly at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. T. D. Hall, No. 618 North Tenth Street, Richmond, Va., last Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. W. McDaniel, D. D. The bride was attired in a blue silk traveling dress and carried a large bunch of bride roses.
The wedding was attended by only a few friends of the family.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for Washington, Baltimore and other Northern cities.

Mr. Hogg formerly lived in Scottville and is now successfully engaged in the drug business in Richmond, Va. He has many warm friends here, who wish him much happiness in his married life, which he so richly deserves.

Jenkins—Brathwaite.

Mrs. Della Bucktrout Brathwaite announces the marriage of her daughter, Minnie Galt, to Clarence Wilcox Jenkins, in Pasadena, Cal., July 2, 1906.

Miss Brathwaite for the past six years has been a teacher under the civil service in the United States Indian Service, stationed first at the Blue Canyon, now the Western Navaho Boarding School, where for nearly two years she did pioneer work and taught unaided a school of one hundred and twelve Indian pupils.
The school was nearly one hundred miles from the railroad, and it was difficult for the government to fill the positions, so the employees who were there generally had to fill others besides their own.

After two years of strenuous work, Miss Brathwaite was transferred to the United States Training School at Fort Mojave, Ariz., near Needles, Cal. This was a boarding school, with a large force of employees, occupying the old military post around which cluster many historic associations of the Southwest.
It was here that the early gold seekers to California followed the trail and crossed the Colorado River and suffered many bloody attacks from the Mojaves to prevent which the military post was finally established.

Mr. Jenkins is an employee at the Fort Mojave School, and also does some work on the Colorado River for the United States Geological Survey, relative to the immense irrigation projects the government has in view for the arid Southwest.

After a honeymoon on the beautiful Island of Catalina and other California resorts, Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins will be at home in Point Richmond, Cal., after August 1st, and will visit Virginia next year during the Tercentennial.

Pound Party.

Miss Margaret McNamee gave at her home, No. 18 West Marshall Street, on Thursday evening, June 21st, a pound party to her many friends. Games were played, and refreshments served afterwards. Notwithstanding the storm, there was a large crowd, and everybody seemed to have a good time. Among the guests that were there were Misses Norma Holt, Roberta May, Irene Bowles, Lilly and Louise Bradley, and Margaret McNamee, and Messrs. Roy Martin, Charles T. Patter, Charles Lee, Winston Hollins, Angie and Raymond Holt and Charlie Neal.

Moonlight on the James.

A very pleasant society affair, in prospect, is the moonlight trip down the James, that will be given by Commonwealth Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, on the evening of July 30th.

The Pocahontas will leave the wharf at 8 o'clock. Mrs. D. T. Williams, of No.
210 East Franklin Street, is chairman of arrangements, and the concert of the chapter, Mrs. A. Chambers, will assist, through her committee, in directing affairs for the evening.
Delightful refreshments will be served throughout the entire trip. Tickets will be placed on sale next week at Branch R. Allen's, No. 281 East Main Street, and Fourteenth and Main Streets; the Jafferson and Murphy's Hotel and at T. A.
Miller's, No. 618 East Broad Street.

Miss Morton Here.

Miss Lucy Morton, of Keyville, Va., the soprano of Christ Episcopal Church, in Memphis, Tenn., and former soprano of the First Baptist Church, this city, sang in the latter church last Sunday evening. Her friends in the city were much pleased to see her again. Miss Morton has had flattering offers for the fall, but has not yet decided as to her future plans.

Miss Burnett Leaves.

Miss Malen Burnett left on Saturday for Montgomery, Ala., to spend the summer with her brother. Early in the fall she goes to take charge of the musical department of Lindenwood College, St.
Charles, Mo. Miss Burnett's many friends regret her departure and Richmond's musical life sustains a great loss.

Now in England.

Former Governor A. J. Montague, Mrs.
Montague and their eldest daughter, Miss Gay Montague, who sailed from New York City by the White Star liner, Majestic, on June 13th, arrived safely at Queenstown on June 20th, and are now in England. Mrs. Montague and Miss Gay will spend a few days in Paris, France, returning to leave with the overnor and members of the commusion on June 20th.

The only stop after leaving Southampton, England, will be for a day at Lisbon, the party being booked to get to Rio Janeiro about July 12th, a few days previous to the arrival of Secretary Root.

The commission will doubtless be busy arranging their schedule of work in readiness for his appearance.
Ex-Governor Montague with his wife and daughter, will return to Richmond about the middle of September. The social side of diplomatic life in Rio is very gay, and Mrs. and Miss Montague will probably have their time fully occupied with their many engagements.

Mrs. Bolling's Class.

The closing musicale of Mrs. Ernest L. Bolling's class, given last Monday evening, at 8:15 o'clock, in the Woman's Club parlors, was attended by a large and enthusiastic audience. Mrs. Bolling was presented with lovely flowers by her pupils as a token of their love and esteem. The

Mrs. Walke Here.

Mrs. Frank Anthony Walke, of Norfolk, Va., spent yesterday in Richmond.
She came up to attend a meeting of a "ways and means" committee in regard to U. D. C. representation at the Jamestown Exposition.

The committee was appointed by Mrs.
William B. McKenney, of Petersburg, Va., president of the Virginia Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, and the meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Norman V. Randolph, of No. 611 East Franklin Street. Mrs. Cabell Smith, of Rocky Mount, Va., is chairman of the committee, the members being Mrs. Pryor Jones, of Petersburg; Mrs. Frank Anthony Walke, of Norfolk, and Miss Elvira Jones, of Roanoke, Va.

Mrs. Walke returns to Norfolk to-day.
She is managing editor of the Jamestown Bulletin, a colonial paper, published by prominent women of the Woman's Jamestown Association, Miss Grace Whitcomb Collins being assistant editor.

Mrs. Walke is also agent of the Hope-Maury Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy. The chapter offered medals to students of the Norfolk High School, writing the best essay on the lives of the late James Barron Hope and Commodore Matthew Fontaine Maury, of Virginia.

Miss Scheel, successful for the third time as a medalist, won the Hope medal, presented on Wednesday last, at the High School, by Mr. William H. Barlett, Jr., of Norfolk, Captain William C. Whitte, of that city, a personal friend of Commodore Maury, represented the Hope-Maury Chapter in awarding the Maury medal to Mr. Kenneth Jones, who also obtained the school medal and a scholarship to the University of Virginia.
